

Moon Vision

I see a doorway :
turquoise gloss, acrylic lacquer, electric supernatural like a good cup of coffee glowing thick like indoor paint before the surface is stirred.

A saffron pearl is a third eye swirls of golden-milk shot through with threads of rust like a west coast sunset out of place
on a flat 3D surface.
